Extract from the "Act for licenſing and regulating auctions in the city of Waſhington."

"Provided always, That the licenſe of auctioneer ſhall, after the expiration of the firſt year, be annually let by the Mayor, by public advertiſement, to the higheſt bidder, on approved ſecurity according to the proviſions of this act; and the perſon or perſons thereupon licenced, ſhall in manner aforeſaid, pay to the treaſurer for the uſe of the city ſuch further additional rate per cent. on the amount of all ſales made by him or them, as he or they ſhall have publicly bidden or offered to pay for the ſaid licence of an auctioneer."

I ſhall attend at Myer's Hotel, on Pennſylvania Avenue, on Monday the 23d inst. to let to the higheſt bidder, according to the proviſions of the aforeſaid act, the places of two auctioneers for the enſuing year, at the hour of eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

ROBERT BRENT,
Mayor,

PUBLIC SALE.

By order of the Orphan's court of Prince George's county, will be expoſed at Public Sale, to the higheſt bidder, at the farm lately occupied by Mr. Richard Cramphin, and at his late dwelling in the town of Bladenſburg, on Tueſday the 10th day of March next, if fair, if not the next fair day.

All the Perſonal eſtate of the ſaid deceaſed (except the crop of Tobacco) conſiſting of a number of valuable ſervants, among whom are ſome excellent houſe and kitchen ſervants, the ſtock of horſes, two of which are very pleaſant ſaddle horſes, mules, cattle, ſheep and hogs, plantation utenſils of every kind, about 160 barrels of corn, 150 buſhels of clean rye, upwards of 20,000 weight of hay, a large crop of well ſaved ſtraw, &c. &c. Likewiſe the unexpired term in a leaſe for 120 acres of land, granted on the 31ſt day of May 1714 for ninety nine years, being ſix years after the 31ſt day of May next. This property [illegible] about one mile weſt of Bladenſburg, [illegible] upon the old road to Georgetown and [illegible] to the fine property of Wm. D. [illegible] The improvements are ſufficient for the accommodation of a family of middling ſize [illegible] for the advantageous cultivation thereof; there are twenty ſix buſhels of wheat ſeeded upon it and about 8 or 10 acres in thrifty [illegible], and a ſufficiency of wood it is believed for its ſupport—a further deſcription is deemed unneceſſary, as it is preſumed that thoſe who wiſh to buy will view the property previous to the ſale. An indiſputable title will be given. And at the dwelling in Bladenſburg, a variety of articles of Houſehold & kitchen Furniture, ſeveral volumes of valuable books, prints, maps and other articles too tedious to mention. The ſale will commence on the farm, at 10 o'clock in the morning, and continue from day to day, till all is ſold. Terms of ſale are a credit of twelve months for all ſums above ten pounds, the purchaſer or purchaſers to give bond, with two good and ſufficient ſecurities, carrying intereſt from the day of ſale, and for all purchaſes to the amount of ten pounds and under the caſh is to be paid. No property will be delivered until previouſly paid, or bonded for as above.

NOTICE.

By order of the Orphans Court of Waſhington County.

This is to give notice, that the ſubſcriber of the city of Waſhington, hath obtained from the Orphan's Court of Waſhington, in the diſtrict of Columbia, letters teſtamentary on [illegible] perſonal eſtate of Thomas Waſhington, late of ſaid city, deceaſed. All perſons having any claims againſt the ſaid deceaſed, are hereby warned to exhibit the ſame, with the vouchers thereof, to the ſubſcriber, at or before the 20th day of Auguſt next—they may otherwiſe by law be excluded from all benefit of the ſaid eſtate. Given under my hand this 13th day of February, 1807.

SARAH WASHINGTON,
Executrix of Thomas Waſhington.
Friday, Feb. 13—w3t

NOTICE.

ALL perſons having claims againſt the eſtate of Seth Carter, deceaſed, late a lieutenant in the navy of the U. States, are deſired to bring in their accounts legally authenticated for adjuſtment by the firſt of May next, and thoſe indebted to the ſaid eſtate are requeſted to make immediate payment to the ſubſcriber, who has obtained letters of adminiſtration on the ſaid eſtates.

JEKIEL CROSSFIELD, Admr.
Waſhington, Feb. 13—w3t

By Prince George's County Court, September term, 1806.

Whereas upon the application of Greenbury Barnes and wife, two of the repreſentatives of a certain Elijah Wood, deceaſed, certain commiſſioners were appointed to aſcertain whether the eſtate of the ſaid Elijah Wood would admit of diviſion agreeably to the act of aſſembly, entitled an act to direct deſcents, which ſaid commiſſioners have made a return to Prince George's county court. And whereas it has been ſtated that ſome of the repreſentatives of the ſaid Elijah Wood, deceaſed, to wit: Laſhley Wood, Robert Wood and Eleanor Swain, live out of the ſtate of Maryland, it is thereupon adjudged and ordered that notice by publication of this order three ſucceſſive weeks in the National Intelligencer before the firſt day of March next to the ſaid abſent parties to appear in Prince George's county court on the firſt Monday in April next, to ſhew cauſe, if any they have, why the return of the ſaid commiſſioners ſhould not be confirmed.
