Nimble-footed Nimble-witted

Too tired—do you stay at home in the evening?
Or when some person drags you from your shell, do you feel dull and heavy at the party where others are carefree and gay?

Do you stand there unnoticed while the merrymakers gather round some genial, quick-witted man or woman?

As you watch bright, lively young couples dance away to the music of a one-step—do you sadly reflect how old you've really grown?

A few kind people will say "poor tired business man"—the others will call you a "gloom."

Don't carry the cares and worries of the day around wherever you go. Conserve your energy by day—and have some strength left at night.

With every step you take you are needlessly pounding away your nervous energy. Replace your leather heels with heels of New, Live Rubber, they absorb the jolts and jars that now wear you out—and leave you fresh for the evening's fun.

Insist on O'Sullivan's—avoid the disappointment of substitutes.

In black, white or tan, for men, women and children; 50c attached. Most good shoe dealers now sell latest styles already O'Sullivanized.
