

RUSSIANS ON THE FRENCH FRONT COMBINING WINTER SPORT WITH TARGET PRACTICE OF THE "WILD WEST" VARIETY. A Rude Merry-Go-Round Has Been Built on the Ice and the Marksman Takes His Seat at the Far End of the Long Pole. While Strong Arms Whirl Him Around at Great Speed He Must Hit the Football Tossed Into the Air. (Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

RUSSIANS, WITH SLABS OF OLD METAL FOR SLEDS, COASTING DOWN A HILLSIDE IN THE CHAMPAGNE COUNTRY OF FRANCE. THE VINES AND THEIR SUPPORTS, BESIDE WHICH THEY GLIDE, SUGGESTING A DEFENSIVE WIRE ENTANGLEMENT. (Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

MISS ELSIE SALTUS, DEBUTANTE, FROM A NEW PHOTOGRAPH. (Photo by Kazanjian.)

MISS EUNICE CLAPP, Daughter of Mrs. Edward Mortimer Ward and Granddaughter of the Late Augustus P. Post, Whose Engagement to Bradish Carrol Has Been Announced. (Photo by Curtis Bell.)

THE IRON-ROOFED NISSEN, A WINTER HUT NOW USED BY BRITISH SOLDIERS IN FRANCE, AND DESCRIBED AS VERY SATISFACTORY. (Photo © American Press Assn.)

OUTPOST OF RUSSIAN TROOPS ON THE FRENCH FRONT CROUCHING IN THE SNOW TO DODGE THE SPLINTERS FROM THE SHELL BURSTING NEAR THEM OR IN THE EXPECTATION OF AN ATTACK. (Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)