

HEAD OF THE COLUMN OF 2,000 BOY SCOUTS OF WASHINGTON, D. C., ARMED WITH HOES AND RAKES AND FLYING THE "STARS AND STRIPES," MARCHING OUT TO EAST POTOMAC PARK, WHERE THE GOVERNMENT HAS GIVEN OVER TO THEM 300 ACRES OF LAND FOR VEGETABLE GARDENS. (Photo © by American Press Assn.)

BOY SCOUTS OF SCARSDALE, N. Y., CLEANING UP LAND FOR THE COMMUNITY GARDEN WHICH THE RESIDENTS OF SCARSDALE HAVE UNDERTAKEN, EACH HOUSEHOLDER PURCHASING ONE OR MORE SHARES IN THE GARDEN AT $10 A SHARE, REDEEMABLE IN VEGETABLES AT COST OF PRODUCTION. (Photos © Underwood & Underwood.)

BRONX HOUSEWIVES ON THEIR WAY TO THE NEW YORK BOTANICAL GARDENS IN THAT BOROUGH, WHERE H. G. PARSONS, SUPERVISOR OF GARDENING, IS INSTRUCTING THEM IN THE ART OF RAISING VEGETABLES. (Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

MEN, WOMEN, AND CHILDREN OF SCARSDALE ASSIST IN CUTTING UP POTATOES FOR PLANTING IN THE NEW COMMUNITY GARDEN.

PARK COMMISSIONER CABOT, BROTHER OF MANHATTAN RESETTING PLANTS IN ONE OF THE MODEL VEGETABLE GARDENS BEGUN A WEEK AGO IN MADISON SQUARE AS A GUIDE AND INSPIRATION TO THE NEW YORK HOUSEHOLDER AND COMMUTER. (Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

BROOKLYN BOY SCOUTS PREPARING GROUND IN PROSPECT PARK, TURNED OVER TO THEM BY THE PARK COMMISSIONER FOR GARDENING. (Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

MARGERY MAUDE, ACTRESS AND DAUGHTER OF CYRIL MAUDE, MAKING BANDAGES FOR THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. (Photo © American Press Assn.)