

NEW YORK STATE'S FIRST MILITARY TRAINING CAMP FOR BOYS OPENED AT PEEKSKILL, N. Y., WHERE 1,800 BOYS BETWEEN 16 AND 19 YEARS OF AGE, REPRESENTING 375 CITIES AND TOWNS OF THE STATE, WERE MOBILIZED A WEEK AGO FOR A MONTH'S INSTRUCTION IN ALL BRANCHES OF MILITARY SERVICE. The Boys Are Here Shown Assembled on "Chapel Bluff" on Last Sunday Morning for the Camp's First Religious Services, Conducted by the Camp Chaplain, the Rev. Dr. Franklin D. Elmer.

(Times Photo Service.)

NORMAN LEE,
 Son of Albert Lee of New York, Is Decorated with the French War Cross by Gen. Dauvin on the Alsne Front. The Citation Before the Division Read: "An American Volunteer, Whose Courage and Devotion Have Never Faltered for a Single Instant, Under the Most Perilous Circumstances He Has Assured the Removal of Wounded Men with a Calmness and Self-Abnegation Which Have Won the Admiration of All."

KING ALBERT I OF THE BELGIANS
 Greeting General Horn of the British Forces on the West Front.
 (© Underwood & Underwood.)

PAUL BREEN ON BEHALF OF THE AMERICAN JUNIOR NAVAL AND MARINE SCOUTS PRESENTING A BOUQUET TO MISS MARGARET WILSON, DAUGHTER OF THE PRESIDENT AT THE CITY HALL.
 (© Underwood & Underwood.)

BOYS OF THE STATE'S FIRST MILITARY ENCAMPMENT UNDER THE NEW LAW ASSEMBLED ON THE PLAIN AT PEEKSKILL ON LAST MONDAY MORNING FOR THEIR OPENING MILITARY DRILL.
 (Times Photo Service.)

KING GEORGE V.
 Bestowing the "D. S. O." on the Widow and Orphan Son of Capt. Roy Dunford, Northumberland Fusiliers.
 (Central News Service.)

MRS. KINGDON GOULD,
 Formerly Miss Annunziata Camilla Maria Lucci, Artist, and Formerly a Tutor in the Family of Her Husband's Father, George J. Gould.
 (Kadel & Herbert.)

KINGDON GOULD,
 Eldest Son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould, Whose Wedding to Miss Lucci, an Artist, Took Place Last Monday. From a Photograph Taken at His Wedding.
 (© American Press Association.)

DAVID LLOYD GEORGE,
 British Prime Minister, Taking Active Part in a Potato Spraying Demonstration Under the Auspices of the Government's Food Production Department at Walton-on-the-Hill, Assisted by Waldron Rose of the Food Production Department.
 (Central News Photo Service.)