

JOHN D. VACHIO,

Whose Draft No., 258, Was the First Drawn, and Who Decorated His Place of Business in Brooklyn and Celebrated His Country's Call, Receiving the Congratulations of Private John Cox, 47th Regiment, N. G. N. Y. (Times Photo Service.)

This Photograph, With Description, Has Been Approved by the British Censor for Transmission Abroad. (© International Film Service.)

REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH OF THE GREAT GERMAN FLEET OF THIRTY-ONE TAUBES ARRIVING OVER THE OUTSKIRTS OF LONDON ON SATURDAY, JULY 7, FOR THE GREATEST AIR RAID SO FAR MADE ON THE BRITISH METROPOLIS, WHEN 37 PERSONS WERE KILLED AND 141 INJURED, THE GERMANS LOSING THREE MACHINES ON THE RETURN TRIP.

Three British Machines Can Be Seen on the Left, Headed for an Attack on the Raiders.

CAPTAIN ALGERNON SARTORIS, Grandson of General U. S. Grant, a Recruit in the Foreign Legion of the French Army, Where He Has Been Largely Engaged in Getting Into Shape the American Volunteers in That Legion. (© International Film Service.)

SISTER MADELEINE FRANCIS JAFFRAY, R. N., Said to be the Only English-Speaking Red Cross Nurse Wounded in France, Who Was Later Decorated with the Cross of War. She is a Native of Chicago, and is Attached to Ambulance Mobile No. 1, Donated by Mrs. Borden Turner of New York.

MRS. GEORGE QUINTARD HORWITZ, Who Has Been Chosen Mayor of Moorehaven, Fla., Where She Has a War Farm from Which She Has Marketed This Year 50 Car Loads of Potatoes, 30,000 Bushels of Corn, and Many Hogs and Cattle. Mrs. Horwitz, Formerly Miss Marian Newhall, is the Widow of a Prominent Philadelphia Lawyer. (International Film Service.)

(Underwood & Underwood.)

ALEXANDER KERENSKY, NEW RUSSIAN PREMIER AND DICTATOR, SALUTING AND CHEERING THE RUSSIAN FLAG AT A RECENT REVIEW HELD BY HIM AT THE FRONT.

MISS ELIZABETH RICKARD, First Graduate of the Wireless Class for Women at Hunter College. She Has Also Passed with Highest Rating the U. S. Bureau of Navigation's Examination and Received a First Grade Commercial Wireless License. (Times Photo Service.)

GENERAL JOHN J. PERSHING, AMERICAN COMMANDER IN FRANCE, GETS HIS FIRST VIEW OF THE GERMAN LINES AND ACTUAL FIGHTING ON THE FRENCH FRONT. (© Kodak & Herbert.)