

MISS
JANE BRADY,
Daughter of James C. Brady, with Her Championship Cup, Won in the Children's Pony Driving and Riding Class at Monmouth.
(Times Photo Service.)

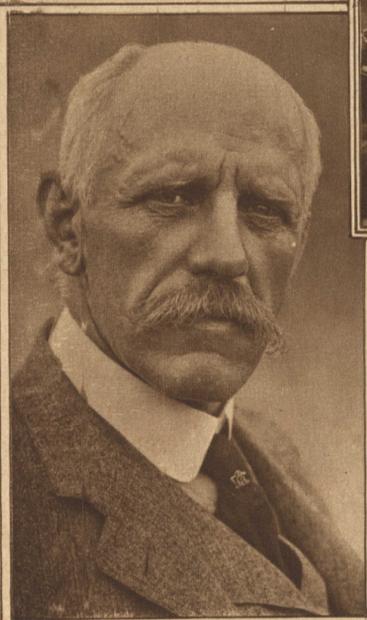

SERGEANT J. T. HALLEY,
TWENTY-FIRST COMPANY,
FORT SLOCUM, WIN-NING THE HAND
GRENADE CONTEST
IN THE MILITARY
ATHLETIC MEET HELD
BY THE NEW YORK
A. C. AT TRAVERS
ISLAND.
(Times
Photo
Service.)

PRIVATE "EDDIE" HART, FORMER PRINCETON FOOTBALL STAR AND CAPTAIN, CHAT-TING WITH MEMBERS OF HIS COMPANY IN THE SEVENTEENTH REGIMENT OF ENGINEERS, U. S. A.
The Regimental Mascot Can Be Seen in the Chaperonage of the Last Man on the Left.
(Kadel & Herbert.)

MEMBERS OF COMPANY A,
TWENTY-SECOND
REGIMENT OF INFANTRY,
STATIONED AT FORT JAY, THROWING GRENADES FROM AN IMPROVED TRENCH AT TRAVERS
ISLAND, A FEATURE OF THE MILITARY
ATHLETIC CONTESTS.
(Times Photo Service.)

DR. FRIDTJOF NANSEN,
Arctic Explorer and Diplomat, Who Has Arrived at the Head of the Norwegian Commission to Negotiate with the American Government
for Grain and Other Supplies Norway Needs.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

WALTER HAGEN PUTTING ON THE EIGHTH GREEN IN HIS
MATCH WITH TRAVERS
AT GARDEN CITY IN THE
RED CROSS
TOURNAMENT.
(Times Photo Service.)

JEROME D.
TRAVERS
IN THE
RED CROSS
GOLF
TOURNAMENT,
SECOND DAY, ON THE ENGLEWOOD
LINKS.

Seated are, left to right:
J. G. Anderson, Norman
Maxwell and "Tom" Kerrigan.
(Edwin Levick.)

ROOKIES OF THE TWELFTH REGIMENT RECEIVING THEIR FIRST LESSON IN HANDLING THE RIFLE ON THE EDGE OF THE SHEEP MEADOW IN CENTRAL PARK.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

MISS
ISABEL
WAN-
MAKER, WINNER
WITH CHERRY
STONE
OF MANY
BLUES
AT THE MONMOUTH
HORSE SHOW.
(Times
Photo
Service.)