

THOUSANDS ALONG THE SHORE OF COPENHAGEN HARBOR VIEW THE WATER CYCLE RACES, A FEATURE OF THE RECENT ANNUAL DANISH WATER SPORTS CARNIVAL.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

KING CHRISTIAN X. OF DENMARK, AND FREDERICK, PRINCE ROYAL OF DENMARK, HEIR TO THE THRONE, ROWING OUT FROM A DOCK IN COPENHAGEN TO THE ROYAL YACHT TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ANNUAL DANISH NATIONAL YACHT RACES.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

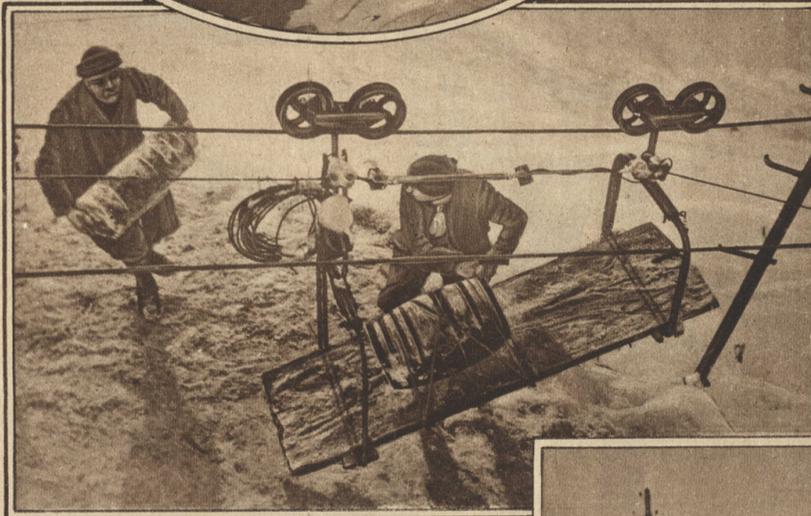

GENERAL CADORNA, COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE ITALIAN ARMIES, WITH MEMBERS OF HIS STAFF, INSPECTING POSITIONS OF THE ITALIAN TROOPS ON THE HILLS OF VELO.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

MRS. VINCENT ASTOR Standing Before a Military Observatory on One of the Highest Points on the Aisne, Which Was Built and Used by Prince Eitel Frederick, the German Emperor's Second Son.

(Pictorial Press.)

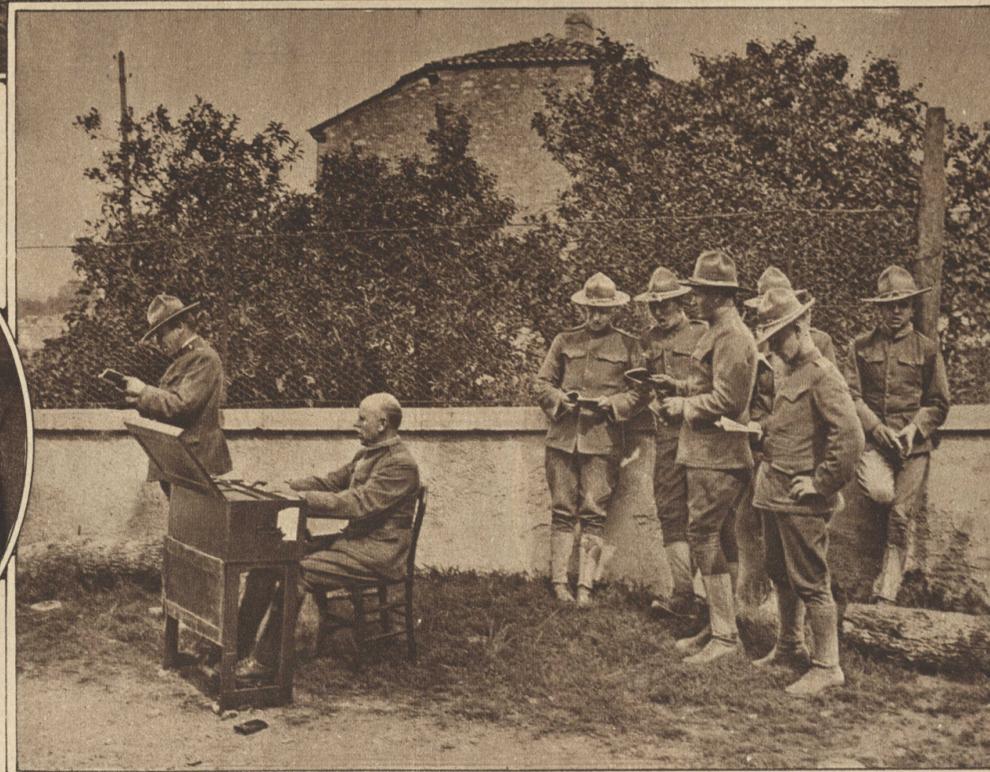

ITALIAN SOLDIERS TRANSPORTING ARMY SUPPLIES UP MT. NERO BY MEANS OF ONE OF THE AERIAL LINES WITH WHICH ARMY ENGINEERS HAVE BRIDGED VALLEYS OF THE ALPS THROUGHOUT THE ITALIAN FRONT.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

PRINCE MICHEL CANTACUZENE AND HIS SISTER, PRINCESS BERTHA, OF RUSSIA, GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN OF GEN. U. S. GRANT, ARRIVING IN CHICAGO TO VISIT THEIR GRANDMOTHER, MRS. FREDERICK DENT GRANT. THEY ARE HERE SHOWN WITH MRS. GRANT.

Prince Michel, Who Came to This Country to Accompany His Sister, a Russian Refugee, Returns Immediately to Petrograd to "Do His Bit" in the Russian Army.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS, IN GENERAL PERSHING'S COMMAND BEHIND THE LINES IN FRANCE, VOLUNTEER TO SING IN THE CHOIR AT A SUNDAY MORNING SERVICE HELD IN THE CAMP.

(Pictorial Press.)

ENSIGN VINCENT ASTOR, U. S. N. R., Who Has Been Serving With the American Naval Patrol in British and French Waters, Visiting War Ruins in the Aisne District.

(Pictorial Press.)