

LARGE GROUP OF GERMAN PRISONERS, CAPTURED BY THE CANADIANS IN THE ADVANCE ON HILL 70, MARCHING TO THE REAR, LED BY CAPTIVE GERMAN OFFICERS. (Associated Press.)

GERMAN SOLDIERS ASSISTING A WOUNDED COMRADE INTO THE CANADIAN LINES. (Associated Press.)

A SECOND BATCH OF GERMAN PRISONERS, CAPTURED BY THE CANADIANS, ON THEIR WAY TO THE REAR FROM HILL 70. Several of Those in the Front Appear to be Hardly More Than Boys. (Associated Press.)

FRENCH SOLDIER EXAMINING A GERMAN FIELD PIECE CAPTURED DURING THE RECENT ADVANCE NORTHEAST OF VERDUN. (Associated Press.)

A CANADIAN BRIGADIER GENERAL AND STAFF PLAYING TENNIS AMID THE WAR RUINS NEAR LENS. Steel Helmets and Gas Masks Are Kept Handy in the Event of Unexpected German Activity. (Associated Press.)

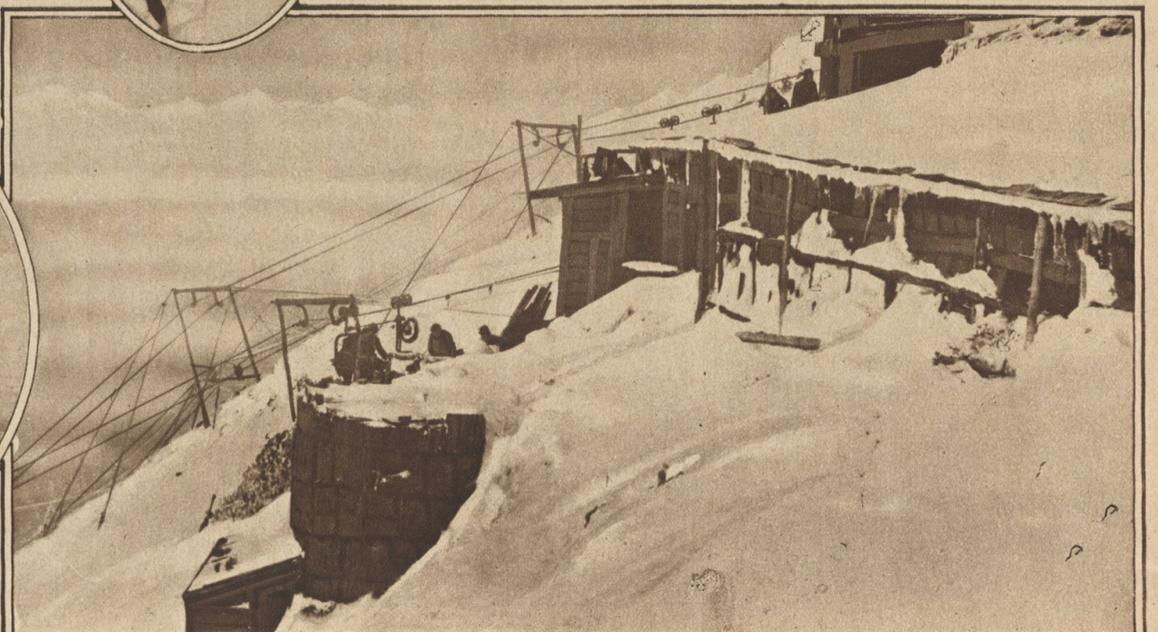

MRS. LAWRENCE OTIS WILSON, Formerly Miss Mary McAdoe, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Ross McAdoe of New York, and Niece of William G. McAdoe, Secretary of the Treasury, Whose Wedding Took Place on Last Tuesday at Litchfield, Conn. (Punch Studio.)

GIRL STUDENTS OF TORONTO UNIVERSITY, IN BLOOMERS AND SOME BAREFOOTED, AT WORK IN THE FIELDS NEAR BEAMSVILLE, ONTARIO, WHERE THEY HAVE UNDERTAKEN THE CULTIVATION OF A LARGE PERCENTAGE OF THE SMALL CROPS TO RELEASE THE MEN FOR THE FRONT. (East Thompson.)

GENERAL JOHN J. PERSHING, THE AMERICAN COMMANDER IN FRANCE, IN CONVERSATION WITH A FRENCH OFFICER IN FRONT OF THE BARRACKS OF THE GARDE REPUBLICAINE IN PARIS. (Associated Press.)

VIEW OF A TERMINAL STATION OF THE "TELEFERICA" OR AERIAL CABLE LINE ERECTED BY THE ITALIANS ON MOUNT NERO, ISONZO FRONT, SEVEN THOUSAND FEET ABOVE SEA LEVEL, FOR THE TRANSPORTATION OF MILITARY SUPPLIES. (Associated Press.)