

MAYOR MITCHEL ANNOUNCING HIS ACCEPTANCE OF THE "POPULAR NOMINATION" FOR MAYOR.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT CALLING FOR THREE CHEERS WHEN THE MAYOR SAID: "I WILL RUN, AND WILL MAKE THE FIGHT AGAINST HEARST, HYLAN, AND THE HOHENZOLLERNS."

MAYOR JOHN PURROY MITCHEL ACCEPTING ON LAST MONDAY THE "POPULAR NOMINATION" AS A CANDIDATE TO SUCCEED HIMSELF MADE BY THOUSANDS OF VOTERS ASSEMBLED IN FRONT OF THE CITY HALL.

Behind the Mayor Are Ex-Gov. Chas. E. Hughes, Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Ex-Ambassador Henry Morgenthau, Oscar S. Straus, Chairman of the Public Service Commission; E. H. Outerbridge, President of the Chamber of Commerce, and George B. McGuire, Vice President of the Federation of Labor, All of Whom Delivered Addresses Urging the Mayor to Run as an Independent Candidate.

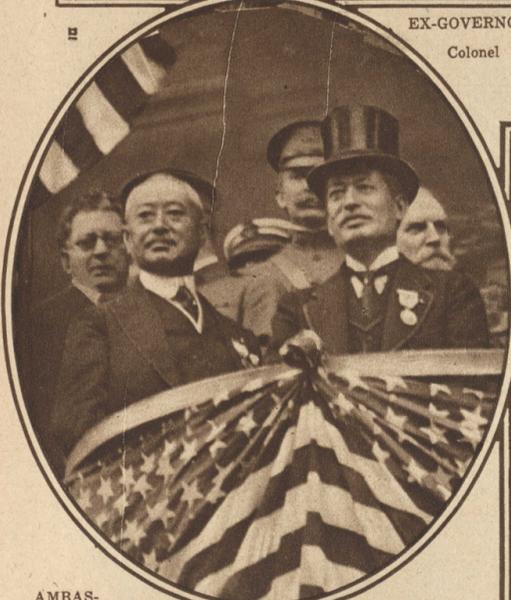

ARTURO TOSCANINI, Former Conductor at the Metropolitan Opera House and Now a Soldier in the Italian Army, in a Trench on the Isonzo Front.

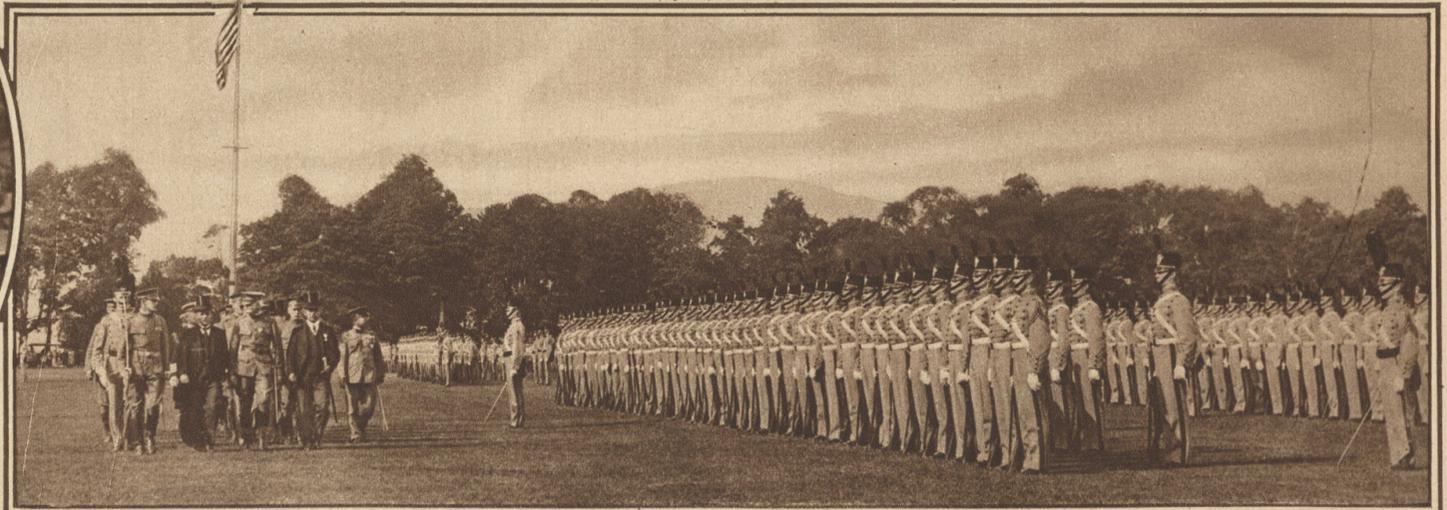

MISSSES EMMA AND KATHERINE LANSING, Sisters of Secretary of State Robert Lansing, Who Are Now in France Engaged in the Red Cross Work of Establishing Aid Stations for American Soldiers. This Photograph Was Taken Just Before Their Departure for France, and Is Now Released by Secretary Lansing.

EX-GOVERNOR HUGHES MAKING A PERSONAL APPEAL TO THE MAYOR TO RUN AGAIN. Colonel Roosevelt and Mr. Morgenthau Can Be Seen Ground.

AMBAS-SADOR AIMARO SATO OF JAPAN AND VISCOUNT ISHII, Chairman of the Japanese Mission to the United States, Reviewing the Old Sixty-ninth Regiment, Now the 165th Infantry of the "Rainbow Division," from a Balcony of the Union League Club.

VISCOUNT ISHII, HEAD OF THE JAPANESE MISSION, MEMBERS OF THE MISSION, AND OFFICERS OF THE UNITED STATES MILITARY ACADEMY REVIEWING THE CADETS ON THE PARADE FIELD AT WEST POINT.