

NEW YORK GUARDSMEN OF THE TWENTY-SEVENTH DIVISION, IN TRAINING AT SPARTANBURG, S. C., LINED UP FOR THEIR SHARE OF THE SECOND LIBERTY BONDS. (© International Film Service.)

QUENTIN ROOSEVELT, COLONEL THEODORE ROOSEVELT'S AVIATOR SON, ABOUT TO MAKE HIS FIRST FLIGHT IN FRANCE IN A CAUDRON BIPLANE.

Standing with Him is Captain Barbier, One of France's Best-Known Flying Men.

(© International Film Service.)

NEW YORK GUARDSMEN AT CAMP WADSWORTH, SPARTANBURG, S. C., DIGGING TRENCHES AFTER THE MANNER OF REAL WARFARE.

(© International Film Service.)

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

NEWTON D. BAKER, SECRETARY OF WAR, AND MRS. BAKER, ON THE HOTEL VERANDA AT HOT SPRINGS, VA.

MEMBERS OF THE HOSPITAL CORPS AT CAMP WADSWORTH, SPARTANBURG, S. C., REMOVING A "WOUNDED" MAN FROM ONE OF THE NEW PRACTICE TRENCHES. (© International Film Service.)

(© International Film Service.)

DRAFTED VIRGINIANS, NOW UNIFORMED AND ARMED WITHIN A MONTH, DRILLING AT CAMP LEE, PETERSBURG, VA., FOR THEIR WORK "OVER THERE."

QUEEN ELIZABETH OF THE BELGIANS REVIEWING THE PUPILS OF ONE OF HER SCHOOLS FOR BELGIAN WAR ORPHANS, ORGANIZED BY HER AND SUPPORTED FROM HER PRIVATE PURSE, A SHORT DISTANCE BEHIND THE BELGIAN FRONT. In the Foreground Are King Albert I. of the Belgians and a Member of the Catholic Clergy Connected with the School. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

LONDON CONSTABLE, WEARING THE STEEL HELMET NOW PROVIDED FOR ALL LONDON POLICEMEN AS PROTECTION AGAINST SPLINTERS FROM ENEMY AIR BOMBS.

(Central News Photo Service.)