

TURK'S CHANCELLOR,
Son of the Undefeated
Turk's Cap, Adjudged the Best Cat of the Entire 141
Shown at the Sixteenth Annual Championship Exhibition of the Atlantic
Cat Club.

Turk's Chancellor, Never Before Been Shown, Is About
Two Years Old, Has a Rich Coat of Beautiful Blue, and Won Twenty Specials in Addition to His Big Championship Victory. He Is Owned by Mrs. Edward L. Clarkson of Tivoli-on-the-Hudson.
(Times Photo Service.)

REMARKABLE USE OF THE CAMOUFLAGE TO REPRESENT A DESTROYED BRIDGE A FEW HUNDRED YARDS BEHIND THE FRENCH LINES IN THE VOSGES MOUNTAINS.
The "Ruins" Shown Are Made Entirely of Painted Canvas and Unpainted Timbers, Having Been Erected Immediately in Front of the Real Ruins of a Most Important Bridge Demolished by German Shell Fire. These Ruins Were Removed After the Erection of the Camouflage and a New Bridge
Was Built on the Old, Undamaged
Foundations, Where It Is in Daily and Uninterrupted Service.

THE NEW BRIDGE
ERECTED ON THE OLD
FOUNDATIONS BEHIND THE CAMOUFLAGE
OF THE RUINS OF THE OLD STRUCTURE SHOWN ABOVE.

MRS. WILLIAM B. LEEDS
of New York, Who Has Leased Kenwood Estate, Hemp-stead, England, from the Earl of Mansfield.
Kenwood Estate Was Formerly the English Residence of the Grand Duke Michael of Russia.
(Underwood &
Underwood.)

THE BRITANNIA, THE BRITISH TANK WHICH SAW SERVICE IN FLANDERS AND TOOK PART IN THE LIBERTY LOAN
PARADE ON FIFTH AVENUE, CRUSHING A LIMOUSINE IN THE STREETS OF TORONTO, CANADA, DURING THE RECENT VICTORY LOAN PARADE.
(British and Colonial Press, Ltd.)

THE LIMOUSINE FLATTENED OUT BY THE BRITISH TANK, BRITANNIA, LIKE A MATCHBOX UNDER A MAN'S FOOT.
(British & Colonial Press.)

CANADIAN OFFICERS INSPECTING GERMAN TRENCH AND FIELD GUNS CAPTURED BY THEM IN FOLIE WOOD DURING THE BATTLE OF VIMY RIDGE.
(© Western Newspaper Union.)

AN AMERICAN MARINE BAND AND AMERICAN SOLDIERS, BEARING THE STARS AND STRIPES, ESCORTING THE BRITISH TANK, BRITANNIA, IN TORONTO'S VICTORY LOAN PARADE.
(Gilliam Service.)

OLGA PETROVA
in a Scene from the "Daughter of Destiny,"
Her New Screen Play to be Released at Christmas.