Mrs. WILLIAM K. VANDERBILT OF NEW YORK AND M. JUSTIN GODART, FRENCH RED CROSS COMMISSIONER,
Leaving a Conference at the American War Hospital, Paris, Previously Supported by Mrs. Vanderbilt and Others Associated with Her, at Which It Was Decided to Turn the Hospital Over to the American Red Cross.
(© International Film Service.)

(Pictorial Press.)

STANDARDS OF EIGHTEEN REGIMENTS OF THE FRENCH ARMY AT VERDUN, WHICH HAVE WON RENOWN, ARE PRESENTED BEFORE KING ALBERT AND PRESIDENT POINCARE DURING THEIR RECENT REVIEW OF THE VERDUN DEFENDERS.

MARCHIONESS DE POLIGNAC, Formerly Mrs. Nina Floyd Crosby Eustis, Widow of James B. Eustis, Whose Wedding to the Former French Aviator, Sportsman, and Head of the Junior Branch of the de Polignac Family of France, Took Place in This City Ten Days Ago.
(Davis & Sanford.)

UNVEILING OF THE MONUMENT ERECTED BY FRANCE IN HONOR OF THE MEMORY OF PEGOUD, FAMOUS FRENCH AVIATOR.
An Airplane Encircled the Monument Throughout the Ceremonies.
(Pictorial Press.)

KING ALBERT I. OF THE BELGIANS DECORATING FRENCH SOLDIERS BEHIND THE LINES AT VERDUN.
Standing Just Behind Him Are President Poincare of the French Republic, and General Petain, French Commander in Chief.
(Pictorial Press.)

GRACE GEORGE IN "EVE'S DAUGHTER," AT THE PLAYHOUSE. →

GEORGES CLEMENCEAU, FORMER FRENCH PREMIER, AND POPULARLY KNOWN AS "THE TIGER OF FRANCE," PASSING THROUGH A TRENCH ON "DEAD MAN'S HILL," BEFORE VERDUN.
(Pictorial Press.)

(White Studio.)

QUEEN ELIZABETH OF THE BELGIANS VISITING THE PORTABLE SURGICAL HOSPITAL GIVEN TO THE FRENCH ARMY BY MRS. DOUGLAS BORDEN TURNER, DAUGHTER OF MRS. WILLIAM BORDEN OF NEW YORK.
Mrs. Turner Can Be Seen Standing Beside the Queen in the Central Foreground.
(Pictorial Press.)

GENERAL SIR DOUGLAS HAIG, BRITISH COMMANDER IN CHIEF IN FRANCE, REVIEWING THE FRENCH ARMY IN COOPERATION WITH THE BRITISH IN FLANDERS.
General Haig Is Seen About to Bestow Decorations on French Soldiers to Whom the War Crosses and Medals Have Been Awarded.
(Pictorial Press.)