PICKETS ABOUT TO GO ON DUTY FROM A SHELTER DUGOUT AT FORT SHERIDAN, LAKE COUNTY, ILL., WHERE THOUSANDS OF YOUNG AMERICANS ARE IN TRAINING FOR SERVICE ABROAD.
The Dugout, from Which Hot Soup Is Served at Short Intervals to Men on Duty Under Actual War Conditions, and the Bridge in the Foreground, Were Built by Men of the Engineers' Section.
(Photos © Committee on Public Information.)

BRITISH "TOMMY," WITH HIS NEWLY FOUND "MASCOT," RESCUED BY HIM WITHIN A FEW MILES OF THE GERMANS' FRONT LINES.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

BETTY CALLISH AS THERESE MANIX IN "THE KING", AT THE GEORGE M. COHAN THEATRE.
(Burke & Atwell.)

Men in Training at Fort Sheridan at Target Practice from Trenches Dug by Themselves.

THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT, Former Governor-General of Canada, Speaking With a Group of Young American Army Officers at One of the Training Schools for British and American Troops Behind the Front in France.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

"OVER THE TOP" AT FORT SHERIDAN, THE FIRST SNOWFALL ADDING REALISM TO THE SCENE.

YOUNG BELGIAN OFFICER BEHIND THE LINES WORKING OUT A MILITARY PROBLEM WITH THE AID OF HIS TOPOGRAPHICAL MAPS.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

THE HARRODIAN GIRLS' FOOTBALL TEAM READY FOR THEIR TRIUMPHANT GAME WITH THE GIRLS OF THE STERLING ATHLETIC CLUB AT BARNES, SURREY, ENGLAND.
(Western Newspaper Union.)

MAJOR BENEDICT CROWELL, NEW ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF WAR, ACCOMPANIED BY GENERAL CHAMBERLAIN, CLIMBING ONE OF THE SNOWCOVERED HILLS OF AYER, MASS., FOR AN INSPECTION OF THE CAMP DEVENS CANTONMENT.
(© International Film Service.)