

GERMAN PRISONERS ENJOYING LIFE IN UNCLE SAM'S CARE.
Here They Are on the Beautiful Grounds of the Internment Camp at Hot Springs, N. C. The German Government Is Being Kept Informed of the Good Treatment Accorded to War Captives in America.

AMERICAN CONGRESSMEN IN LONDON, STUDYING ENGLAND'S PART IN THE WAR.

In the Group Are: Representatives Goodwin of Arkansas, Hicks of New York, Johnson, Dill and Miller of Washington; Stephens of Nebraska, Dale of Vermont, Parker of New Jersey, Timberlake of Nebraska and Taylor of Colorado.

(International Film Service.)

WAR'S RAVAGES ALREADY KNOWN TO VENICE.
Typical Wreckage of Dwelling Houses Caused by Austrian Air Bombs in the Italian City Long Before It Was Threatened With Occupation by the Enemy.

(Central News Photo Service.)

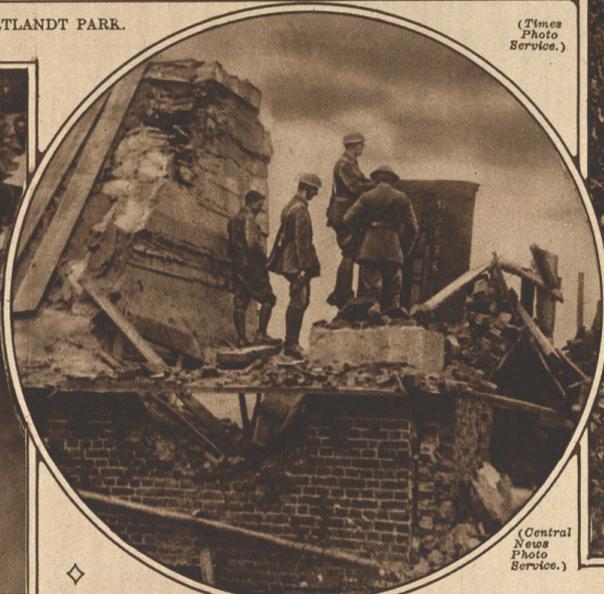

START OF THE NATIONAL JUNIOR CROSS COUNTRY RACE ON NOVEMBER 10 AT VAN CORTLANDT PARK.
It Was Won by G. T. Nightingale, No. 180. He Is Seen in a Black Sweater Near the Front.

(Times Photo Service.)

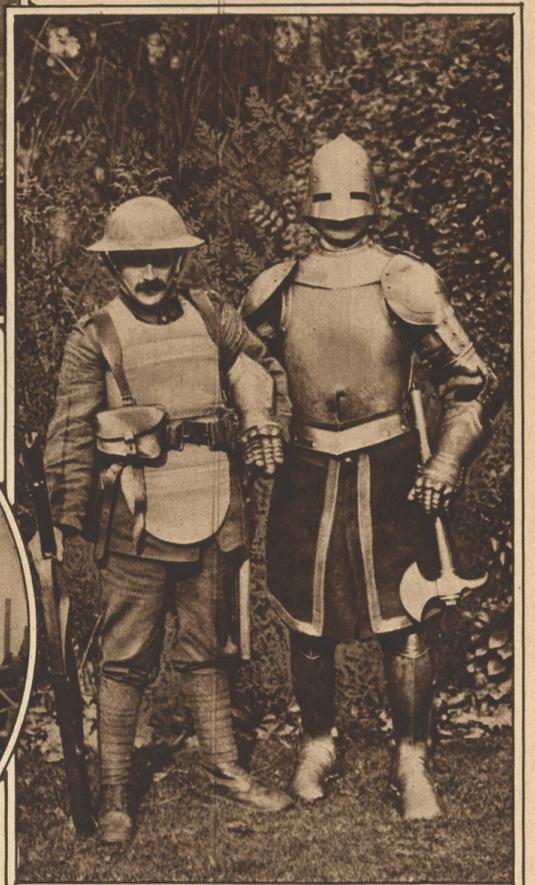

CHINESE LABORERS LIKE THESE HAVE ARRIVED IN FRANCE IN LARGE NUMBERS WITHIN THE LAST FEW MONTHS.

(Central News Photo Service.)

TURNING THE TABLES ON THE WEST FRONT.
A German Observation Post Now Used by the British.

(Central News Photo Service.)

MODERN ARMOR RIVALS ANCIENT MAKE-UP.
A Stalwart in Medieval Body Armor Meets a British Tommy at Home on Leave. It Can Be Seen at Once That Tommy, Though Not Quite So Heavily Laden, Knows Something About Protecting Himself.

(International Film Service.)