

LIQUID FIRE USED BY THE FRENCH ON THE WEST FRONT TO ROUT THE ENEMY FROM PROTECTED POSITIONS IN WOODS AT THE LEFT.
(© Committee on Public Information, from W. N. I.)

NEW YORK FIRE ATTRIBUTED TO PLOTTERS.
After the Burning of the Washburn Wire Company's Plant Last Sunday Night It Was Discovered That Many Enemy Aliens Had Been Employed There and Had Violated Rules Barring Them from River Front.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

GENERAL SIR HENRY H. WILSON, BRITAIN'S MEMBER OF THE ALLIED MILITARY COMMITTEE, DIRECTING ITALIAN OPERATIONS WITH GENERALS CADORNA AND FOCH.
(Central News Photo Service.)

BIG MEN AND LITTLE IN THE NATIONAL ARMY.

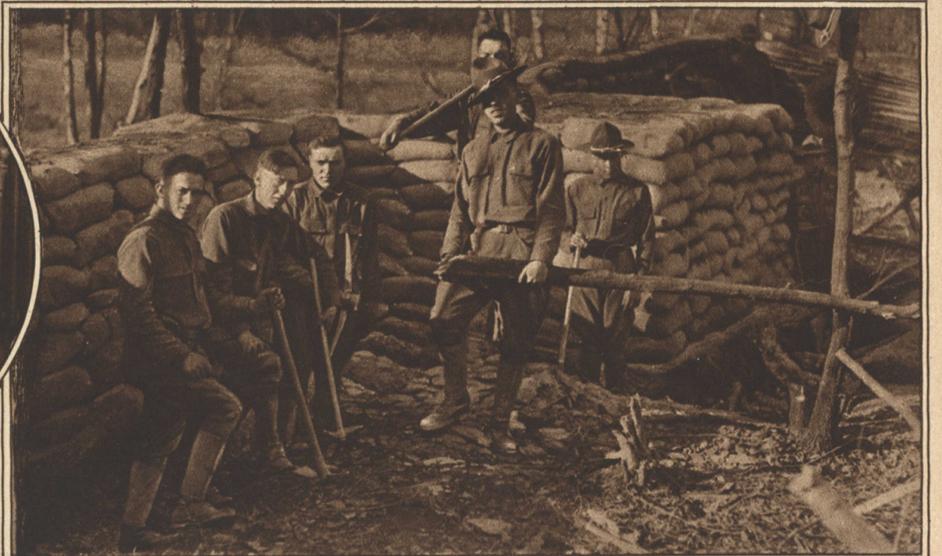

In the Bakery Force at Camp Devens Are W. F. Simpson, (Centre,) 5 Ft. 2 Inches Tall; Corporal C. E. Barnett, (Left,) 6 Ft. 3 Inches, and Jack Ras, (Right,) 6 Ft.
(© International Film Service.)

AT A SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY WHERE NEARLY EVERY STUDENT VOLUNTEERED FOR MILITARY TRAINING AND ALL INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS HAVE BEEN ABOLISHED.
The University of North Carolina Battalion Receiving National and Regimental Colors Presented by Two Alumni. In the Foreground Are President E. K. Graham, Miss Mary Patterson, and Captain Allen of the "Princess Pat" Canadian Light Infantry.

MEN WHO KNIT FOR THE SOLDIERS. THEY ARE MEMBERS OF A FIRE COMPANY IN ROME, N. Y.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

DRAFTED MEN ALREADY DIGGING REAL TRENCHES.
This Picture from Camp Devens, Massachusetts, Shows How Rapid Has Been the Training of Young Men Who Knew Nothing of Soldiering a Few Weeks Ago.
(© International Film Service.)