MORE THAN MERE DRIVING

New York East Side Taxi Drivers Find Transplanted Jobs Exciting as Old Ones

Lieutenant Robinson's outfit of trucks has for its insignia an Indian head. There was a time when this befuddled red-man on the tail gates, bringing to mind the dash and romance of the plains and the action of the cinema, seemed rather to belie these lumbering unemotional trucks, while the drivers, who had come to France with their own notions as to what war was like, had their enthusiasm a bit dented when their job of screwing up inaccessible grease cups and waiting for comrades at loading parks to finish their soupe.

BASTIENNE'S HAND IS ALL A-TREMBLE

Little Mascot Writes Her Gratitude to Yankee Godfathers

My Dear Parrains—I am so excited that my little hand shakes when I think that I am going to let you know how grateful I am for your kindness in being interested in my welfare. I was so very happy to hear the good news the day of my first communion. I am currently in God for you and I shall ask Him every night to give you life and health as long as He will so that you can defend our dear country that you can defend our dear father, who fell on the field of honor before Verdun.

USE FOR CYLINDER OIL

One resourceful sanitarian in the A.E.F. has made this discovery: Cylinder oil after being removed from automobiles that have been cleaned, if mixed with kerosene, is very efficacious and suitable for sanitary purposes, especially for latrines and manure piles.

Not a Tame Life

Truck convoys have, of course, always been subject to shell fire and gas. The life has by no means been a tame one. And anybody who has ever driven a five-ton car with five tons of ammunition on an all night run will admit that to be an M.T.C. man requires steel nerves—especially on crowded roads without lights, when perhaps the driver cannot see three yards ahead of the radiator cap, and perhaps with sheets of rain dashing against his face, when an error in judgment means smashing an artillery position or bumping a half dozen sleepy doughboys into the ditch.

Yanks Use Their Resources

The Yanks had few resources on their side in this unequal combat, but they used them all. Immediately they took a zigzag course as much as the road would permit, and at every road stop due to congestion of traffic the drivers seized their Springfields and plugged away.

FOUND—BEAU BRUMMEL

There are dandies and dandies, even in the Army. There are men who will devote three-quarters of an hour to shining their shoes, not because they are mounting guard that afternoon, but merely because they are going down street.

But any list of the dressy people in the A.E.F. would be incomplete if it failed to mention the youth who, because he is sensitive about the thin calves with which heaven has graced him, always covers them in several thicknesses of newspaper before he puts on his dress spirals.

HEART BAD, BUT IT BEATS TRUE AT TOUL

Doctors Rejected Johnny, Who Goes Over and Returns a Hero

Johnny Salmon, who hails from Lowell, Mass., went to Camp Devens last fall along with a lot of other lads. Once there, the doctors looked him over and shook their collective heads. "Heart," they said. "First shock'd send him blooey. Sorry; can't keep him; let 'm go home."

A.E.F. HOSPITALS CLASSIFIED ANEW

All But Field and Evacuation Will Be Designated S.O.S. Formations

With the exception of evacuation and field hospitals, all hospitals are henceforth to be designated as S.O.S. formations. This is the purport of Bulletin No. 29, Hq. S.O.S. These hospitals are divided into two classes. The first includes hospital centers and base or special hospitals disconnected from hospital centers. The second includes camp or other hospitals serving purely local purposes. Hospitals of the first class have the status of general hospitals. They are under the control of the commanding general of the sections of the S.O.S. in which they are located solely in the matter of discipline, guard, inspection, construction, supply and fire protection. In all other matters they are under the direct control of the Chief Surgeon.

It happened in Paris. He was black, a Yank soldier, and from New Orleans. He was heading toward the Seine, when an on-coming comrade, same color, halted him. Said the comrade: "I'd be advisin' you, Lesiah, not to go too near that river; they're likely to be lookin' foh a molasses detail."
